SCHOOLS PROMOTE FREE MEAL SERVICE

SCHOOL may be out for the summer, but pupils and parents have taken part in an initiative to raise awareness of free school meals in Barking and Dagenham.

Figures show children and young people in the borough are missing out on a healthy school meal that could save money for the families of those entitled.

Paid for meals cost £2.20 per day, which amounts to more than £400 per year per child.

Schools, too, are also missing out on crucial funding. Under the Government's new Pupil Premium scheme, which was introduced this year, funding is based on the number of pupils claiming free meals.

For every child receiving this, the Government awards the school £430. If more families register, schools could claim hundreds of thousands of pounds.

The awareness initiative took place at All Saints Catholic School, in Dagenham, with performances from Studio 3 Arts and the school's choir.

Headteacher, Kevin Wilson, said: "We are proud the launch of free school meals took place at All Saints - it really means a lot to the school."

"Parents should accept free school meals, especially in times of austerity. Free school meals are a part of school entitlement. Post 16 year olds will also benefit."

Claiming and receiving free school meals is now anonymous,

SIGN UP: All Saints headteacher Kevin Wilson joins pupils to promote the free meal scheme.

Picture by Roy Tillet

thanks to the StreetBase and Splash cards. All cards are swiped in the same way so nobody knows if a meal is paid for or not.

This eradicates the stigma that was previously attached to free school meals.

Applying for free school meals is now easier for parents because there is a new application form on the council's website that can be completed and submitted online.

Councillor Rocky Gill, cabinet member for education and children, said: "This is a very important campaign that will benefit everyone. Children will benefit from a healthy meal, parents will save money and the school will receive vital funding."

"Figures show that the number of families taking up free school meals is low. We want this number to increase so children get what they are entitled to.

"We are in tough economic times and want to support our local families by saving them money."

Households cannot claim free school meals if they receive Working Tax Credits or earn more than £16,190.

If parents would like to discuss any aspect of the free school meal claim, they can call 020 82272970 or e-mail benefits@lbbd.gov.uk

BAD wins grant

BARKING and Dagenham's (BAD) Youth Forum has secured money for an anti-bullying campaign.

The group received £300 from the O2 Think Big Grant to help fund their campaign to tackle bullying in schools and the wider community.

The plan includes reviewing anti-bullying policies from each school, speaking with peers and developing workshops.

Praise for parks

THREE of the borough's green spaces are among the best in the country.

St Chad's Park in Chadwell Heath and Dagenham Parish Churchyard, in Dagenham, have both been given Green Flag awards. Meanwhile, Pandall Lake, also in Chadwell Heath, has received a Green Flag Community Award - formerly known as the Green Pennant.

WIN! Family tickets to Sea Life Adventure

IF you are looking for something to do during the summer holidays, why not visit Sea Life Adventure?

The South East's premier aquatic attraction offers a fantastic day out for all the family, thanks to its amazing displays and interesting talks.

We have 10 family tickets to the aquarium to give away, each admitting two adults and two children to the themed aquarium, which allows visitors to come face to face with many marine creatures.

Creatures from the Thames Estuary include Rays, Crabs and Starfish, while tropical creatures include Lionfish, Porcupine Puffer fish and a very famous Clown fish.

There's a Tropical Sharks exhibit to explore, as well as a nursery area, where newborn fish and any poorly residents are cared for.

Wander along Beach Walk, enter the Sea Cavern and HMS Sub Tropical and find out more about the Seahorses, Rockpool, Deepwater
World and the Most Venomous area.

Sea Life Adventure, which has more than 40 unique displays, was totally transformed last year during a huge refurbishment.

The work gave the aquarium a new look as well as a new look, an extra mezzanine floor, a new Three Shells cafe, and the new Deepwater World tunnel complete with black tip sharks.

Young hack wins place in journalism academy

A TEENAGER has taken a big step on the road to becoming a journalist.

Bunmi Enirayetan has landed one of 26 coveted places at the Young Journalists' Academy Summer School (YJA).

The 18-year-old, from Barking, will now join others for workshops at Canary Wharf and tours of newsrooms and studios at The Times, the BBC and Reuters. Students will train in everything from feisty opinion writing to celebrity reporting.

There will be workshops and seminars on finance journalism, sports writing, foreign news correspondence and more.

Students will be blogging about their experiences throughout the week.

The two best bloggers will be rewarded with work placements at The Times.

Aimed at 16 to 18-year-old London state-school pupils, the summer school teaches teens the nuts and bolts of journalism.

YJA co-ordinator, Nathalie Rothschild, said: "The school was set up in response to research from the Sutton Trust and from the Cabinet Office showing there is a great class imbalance in the UK media industry."

"The YJA challenges the idea that you need to have the right education or be lucky enough to have personal connections in the media world in order to be allowed to grace its hallowed halls."

CONGRATULATIONS:
Bunmi Enirayetan hopes to break into journalism.

Get the most out of the Games in new campaign

MAYOR of London, Boris Johnson has launched a campaign to help Londoners get the most from the Olympic Games.

It highlights how Londoners can get access to new and improved sports facilities, music classes for novices, cleaner public spaces, thousands of new homes and a range of volunteering opportunities.

The campaign will run throughout August and September with posters on the London Underground and radio adverts.

Mr Johnson said: "As we count down in earnest to 2012, not only is the crescendo of excitement steadily building, but we can see how the Games is beginning to benefit every corner of the capital."

"I want every Londoner to benefit from the great opportunities the Games are bringing."

The full list of 100 great things about the Olympics can be found on the Greater London Authority website at www.london.gov.uk/games

Art project showcases talented local dancers

A FILM produced by Westfield Stratford City and East London Dance is now available online.

Dancing Landscapes is the culmination of a two-year community public art project.

It worked with dancers from the Newham community and captured their work through a series of striking still photography and video work.

Filming locations included the Westfield Stratford City site, Eastbury Manor House, Trinity Buoy Wharf and the Viewtube.

The content explores the many languages of the area through the medium of dance, from belly dance to Bollywood, across the African Diaspora and all the way around the world.

Kiki Gale, director of East London Dance, said: "The project has provided a real opportunity to get our dancers involved and interested in the regeneration of Stratford."

The film recently previewed at The Floating Cinema and will also broadcast from key east London locations.

You can also see it online by visiting <http://bit.ly/oKxF1p>

It will also be on shown at Vue cinema on its community wall once their Stratford City cinema opens on September 13.

Concerns raised over plan for health centre

By Peter Henn

A COUNCILLOR has raised concerns over the proposed closure of a walk-in centre to make way for housing.

Barking, Havering & Redbridge NHS Hospitals Trust (BHR) wants to dispose of the Upney Lane Health Centre, in Barking, in order to raise money from property development.

The Trust plans to transfer services to Barking Hospital, but Councillor Rocky Gill (Labour, Longbridge) is very worried by the proposals.

He said: "This is a very popular, very valued centre, and we do not want to get rid of it."

"It is all very well BHR saying they will move services to Barking Hospital, but people think they'll close the centre and then not commence with the change of services."

The facility currently offers services such as blood tests, health checks, X-rays information and treatment for minor illnesses and injuries.

There is also a link between Upney Lane and the Moorfields Eye Hospital, which provides services at the site.

The centre will be replaced by 14 flats and 12 houses.

Mr Gill said: "You would think that we'd need more infrastructure, rather than getting rid of it."

However, BHR says the sale has been in the pipeline for a while and will allow them to invest more money into the health services.

A spokesman for the Trust said: "The health sector has been planning for some time to relocate the services at the Upney Lane Clinic to the nearby Barking Hospital."

"With the building work at Barking Hospital completed, it will offer new facilities to patients, with better access and parking."

"The walk-in centre, along with blood tests, outpatient and X-ray services will all move into the hospital."

"The Upney Lane site would then be sold, bringing more money into the local health economy."

CONCERN: Councillor Rocky Gill outside the centre in Upney Lane.

MAYOR OF LONDON

Names chosen for five new neighbourhoods

By Jenny Green

THE names of five new neighbourhoods to be built as part of the Olympic legacy were unveiled this week.

A judging panel met at Stratford's Olympic Park on Tuesday to announce the names, which were chosen as part of a public competition.

The winners were Chobham Manor, East Wick, Sweetwater, Marshgate Wharf and Pudding Mill. Each of these neighbourhoods will be built on the future Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park.

The competition – called Your Park, Your Place – was set up by the Olympic Park Legacy Company and received almost 2,000 entries.

Suggestions were based on the future design of the neighbourhoods, the Olympic Games itself and the area's historic past, which was once home to factories and gunpowder mills.

Chobham Manor will be the first neighbourhood to be developed, located between the VeloPark and Athletes Village.

When all five areas are complete, they will provide up to 8,000 new homes and a network of new schools, nurseries, health centres and community spaces.

Andrew Altman, chief executive of the Olympic Park Legacy Company, said: "Today the public has given a new piece of London its identity, where communities will grow in five neighbourhoods alongside the spectacular venues and open spaces created for the Games."

IMPRESSIVE: A computer generated image of the how the Olympic Park could look in the future.

Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, added: "It's great that these new neighbourhoods will have the stamp of Londoners firmly imprinted upon them, thanks to the enthusiasm and inspiration of those who entered and judged this competition. Congratulations to all the winners."

The five neighbourhoods will open in phases from 2013, with families moving in to the first new homes in 2015.

Get your gladrags on for charity walk

By Jenny Green

CALLING all vintage lovers!
It's time to pull on your pinnies and dust off your fascinators for the first ever Vintage Midnight Walk.

The fun event, on Saturday, September 10, will see stylish men and women from across the capital walking 10 miles to raise cash for charity.

Whether you love the 'roaring twenties' or have the spirit of the Blitz, you are guaranteed to have a great time at the vintage-themed event, which will also see participants stopping off for traditional tea and cakes.

The walk is in aid of Richard House Children's Hospice, in Beckton, and St Joseph's Hospice, in Hackney, and will take in the sights of Bethnal Green, Shoreditch and Hackney, among others.

Natasha Reynolds, events fundraiser at Richard House Children's Hospice, said: "Our Vintage Midnight Walk will be a night to remember.

"We want to see Londoners from all over the capital in their best vintage gear, dressed up to remind us all what the East End was like in the 1920s, 1930s and 1940s.

"At the same time, we want to get the message out there that these are also two great causes to support."

Registration costs £15 and participants must raise a minimum sponsorship of £100.

To sign up for the event, log on to www.vintagemidnightwalk.com

CLASSY: Natasha Reynolds,

Midnight Walk.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

WGEL athletes show their class at trials

Athletics

WOODFORD Green with Essex Ladies athletes were in action at the Aviva UK Championships and World Championship Trials at Birmingham's Alexander Stadium last weekend.

Woodford's performances were led by wins from Jeanette Kwakye and Tiffany Porter. There were also medals for Shana Cox and Mark Dry, with several others making the finals of these national championships and a fine 400m improvement for decathlete Dan Awde.

Awde, currently the UK's leading decathlete, contested the 400m, and underlined what many believe to be the even greater international potential that he may have in this event or the 400m hurdles.

In brutal qualification which saw just the winners from four heats plus the four fastest losers qualify for the final, Awde recorded a personal best of 46.53 secs to place third in his heat.

Although missing a place in the main final he did however qualify for the 'B' final. In placing third in this race, Awde again significantly improved his personal best, to 46.04 secs, just 0.13 secs from first place as he finished strongly behind two international 400m specialists.

Three years after finishing sixth in the Beijing Olympic 100m final, and having suffered from injury frustration almost ever since, Kwakye looks to be back close to her best ever as she took the UK title in a fine 11.23 secs.

The other title went to Tiffany Porter, the former American, already the British record holder took the 100m hurdles from Jessica Ennis in 12.76 secs.

Behind Kwakye and placing fifth in the 100m final, reportedly in her final outdoor season, was Joice Maduaka who recorded a season's best of 11.57 secs.

Maduaka also made the 200m final where she was eighth in 24.09 secs.

There was a silver medal for another former American, Shana Cox, in a very competitive 400m where her 51.84 secs placed second.

Woodford's third medal came in the field where, in the hammer, Dry again went over 70m as he placed third with 70.33m, with Andy Frost close behind in fifth with 68.44m.

O's beaten by strong Spurs side

Leyton Orient

By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient's unbeaten pre-season campaign ended last Friday night against a Spurs side containing no less than nine full internationals.

England star Peter Crouch grabbed a first-half brace, before Orient skipper, Stephen Dawson reduced the arrears shortly before the break.

Orient's new signing, Scott Cuthbert, then put through his own goal shortly after half-time and Niko Kranjcar rubbed salt into the east Londoners' wounds with a fourth.

But, with the new season only seven days away boss Russell Slade was left counting the cost of losing Dawson (ankle) and new-signing, David Mooney (hamstring).

Terrell Forbes, keeper Jamie Jones and Jon Tehoué are also opening day doubts and Slade admitted: "Whilst it was a good workout, losing these two players was a big, big blow. It's left us a little short in some areas, so it means we might have to bring in a loan player – or two."

Slade added: "It was a really good workout and we won't be playing teams like that every week, because they punish you if you make little mistakes."

"It was fantastic that Spurs had such a strong side. But, it was a pity there weren't more people here to watch it.

"We're optimistic about the new season and I will do my utmost to drive this club forward and finish as high as we possibly can. The fans away from home were magnificent last season – it's a lot of travelling and lot of expense and hopefully we can reward them."

• Orient open the new season at Walsall next Saturday (kick-off 3pm) and are in Carling Cup action at Southend on Tuesday week (kick-off 7.45pm).

West Ham United

Irons pick up victory

IT was all smiles at West Ham United on Saturday following their impressive 2-0 pre-season win over Real Zaragoza at Upton Park.

New signing Matt Taylor and Freddie Sears scored the goals for Sam Allardyce's men and the Hammers now look towards the start of the season when they play Cardiff at home on Sunday.

New signing Joey O'Brien featured after joining the club after being released by Bolton Wanderers at the end of last season.

The 25-year-old Republic of Ireland international made his first-team debut for Bolton in 2004 under Allardyce and can play in either defence or midfield.

Also featuring for the Irons on Saturday was full-back Jilloyd Samuel.

The former Aston Villa and Bolton player is on trial for the club and impressed assistant boss Neil McDonald.

He told the club's website: "First impressions were really good. Jilloyd has got a good pedigree and a good CV, so we've got him in, trained him for a couple of days and got a good look at him on Saturday."

"I think the performance showed that there's no hangover, but at the same time it's vital we concentrate on Cardiff next week and make sure we get the same performance as we got on Saturday."

Dagenham & Redbridge

Four in for Daggers

DAGENHAM & Redbridge have strengthened their squad with four players signed before the start of the season on Saturday.

Former Spurs, Southend and Gillingham midfielder Kevin Maher joins along with defender Richard Rose, who was released by Hereford United at the end of last season after five years at Edgar Street.

Midfielder Sam Williams played for Yeovil Town last season, while fellow midfielder Luke Howell was on a short-term deal at Lincoln City last season following spells at Gillingham and MK Dons.

The Daggers travel to Macclesfield Town on Saturday for the start of the season.

Wanstead hold two-point lead as top two draw

Shepherd Neame Essex Cricket League

PREMIER DIVISION

THE title race is hotting up with both the top two holding out for draws on Saturday.

Leaders Wanstead still have a two point advantage over Brentwood but both sides struggled against the bottom two sides who turned the form book on its head.

Bottom side Loughton declared on 314-7 against Wanstead, with Bilal Butt hitting an unbeaten knock of 132, backed up by Rizwan Sadiq's 73.

An inspired Butt then did damage with the ball, taking 6-86, as Wanstead struggled in their chase, but they managed to hang on with a wicket to spare on 239-9.

Brentwood were also made to work for their draw at Chelmsford, who remain in the drop zone. Chelmsford's Nick Prowting was the backbone of their innings, scoring 116 as they declared on 275-8, which proved a difficult task for last year's champions.

Michael Pollard (60), James Redwood (49) and Max Osborne (49 not out) scored well for Brentwood, but Rob Hayto took 6-33 for Chelmsford as Brentwood hung on at 241-9.

Colchester & East Essex closed the gap to the top two thanks to their comfortable six wicket win at Hainault & Clayhall, who were bowled out for 123.

Fourth place Ilford won by seven wickets at Ardleigh Green who hover above the relegation zone.

Abir Chippa took 5-85 for Ilford as Ardleigh put up 241-9, opener Thomas Oakley scoring 63. Ilford's opening pairing Gagan Bhogal (111) and Nigel Jacob (94) made it an easy task for their side to reach the target.

South Woodford came out on top by two wickets against Woodford Wells, who were all out for 146 with Andrew Richardson's 53 any innings of note.

However, it was not all plain sailing for South Woodford who just reached their target thanks to Max Shirt's unbeaten knock of 44.

DIVISION ONE

BUCKHURST Hill remain in control at the top thanks to their seven wicket victory over Orsett.

Carlos Remy took 7-56 as Orsett were all out for 189, Phil Landman scoring 54. Openers Gordon Whorlow (47 not out), Russell Beckett (98) and Jamie Allen (37) saw Buckhurst comfortably home.

Shenfield hold the other promotion place in second after their five wicket win over Chingford.

Shahbaz Butt's unbeaten 118, backed up by Nick Shawyer (60) and Alfie Taylor (50) put Chingford in a decent position on 285-6.

But a sixth wicket partnership between Shenfield's Tom Austin (62 not out) and Matt Salisbury (71 not out) helped Shenfield to overhaul their total, Arshad Ali also contributing with 56.

Third place Upminster are two points behind Shenfield following their seven wicket win over fourth place Hadleigh & Thundersley in a high scoring encounter, while Fives & Heronians won by four wickets over bottom side Gidea Park & Romford.

Asif Iqbal (78) helped Gidea Park to 226 as Rahul Bhome took 6-68, but Fives had Ben Britton to thank with an unbeaten 82 to steer his side home.

Hornchurch edged out strugglers Harold Wood by just five runs.

They declared on 259-7 with Paul Murray Jnr (72) Chris Sains (68 not out) and Billy Gordon (62) hitting respectable scores while Rizwan Qureshi took 5-101.

In a nail-biting chase, Wood just missed out despite decent knocks by Qureshi (74) and Richard Brabner (52) as Richard Sherlock took 5-53 for Hornchurch.

DIVISION TWO

SOUTHEND-on-Sea & EMT extended their lead at the top to three points, despite not being in action.

Walthamstow's exclusion from the league means they picked up the points.

Harlow are in second after beating Stanford Le Hope by five wickets.

Christo Otto's was the mainstay of the Stanford innings, hitting an unbeaten 77 as his side were bowled out for 129, Ahmed Khawaja taking an impressive 4-9 in a four over spell.

Harlow comfortably made their total, with Haris Afridi scoring 57, although Gary Sanderson bowled well for Stanford, taking 3-33.

Leigh-on-Sea lead the chasing pack in third after seeing off near neighbours Westcliff-on-Sea by 79 runs, with Westcliff's Sean Elliott (5-91) and Leigh's Ben Leyshon (7-28) producing stand out performances.

Wickford produced a stunning 142-run victory at Hornndon on the Hill after bowling them out for just 57.

Daniel Pryke (4-31), Asif Abbas (4-12) and Jamie Went (2-9) did wonders with the ball to protect Wickford's score of 199.

Horndon's Liam Hubbard also picked up useful figures of 6-86.

Strugglers Hutton had something to cheer about, winning by 33 runs over Old Southendian & Southchurch, Naeem Iqbal taking 5-49.

DIVISION THREE

BELHUS are the new leaders thanks to their 30 run victory at Old Parkonians.

After declaring on 256-2 thanks to scores from Gavin Jefferies (105 not out) and Joe Joyce (70 not out), Belhus' bowlers Dale Kenyon (4-66), Connor Day (3-65) and Owen Jefferies (3-58) made the Old Parks batsmen toil, although opener Hermes Solomonides scored 52.

Previous leaders Basildon & Pitsea are still level on points in second, despite going down by five wickets at home to West Essex, who go third.

Basildon were removed quickly for 182, while the West Essex batsmen scored consistently to reach their target, Gareth Jenkins hitting an unbeaten 54.

Epping caused a shock, beating Benfleet by seven runs, although the visitors did only play with ten men.

Woodford Green won by nine wickets at bottom side Ongar, while Old Brentwoods and Billericay played out a draw.
